

SSS Playwaze – Welcome

NEW PLAYWAZE USERS (NOT REGISTERED ON BUCSPRAY)

1. You can visit the SSS Playwaze Community directly by clicking HERE
2. You will be met with a Join the Community screen, please select the green joining for myself button to move on to the next step
3. You should then be given the option to either login or create an account – select create an account (top right of your screen)
4. Please use your email account to create your Playwaze profile
5. After clicking the “Create” button, you will be met with a pop screen with a list of registration questions to complete
 - a. Please select your institution of study when registering
6. Once your details have been completed, you should automatically be taken to the SSS home page which will feature a list of sport specific communities
7. Please select and join each of the relevant sports communities (green button at the bottom of each sports community)

BUCS PLAY ACCOUNT HOLDERS

1. Visit the Playwaze Home Page
2. Login using the same email/password as your BUCS Play log in
3. Once Login, type in “Scottish Student Sport” into the Find Other Communities search bar located towards the bottom of the page
4. Please note that two separate communities may appear in the search results –select to join the community named simply “Scottish Student Sport” with no numbers (a small green button will show up as at the bottom of the square)
5. After clicking the “Join” button, you will be met with a pop screen with a list of registration questions to complete
6. Once your details have been completed, you should automatically be taken to the SSS home page which will feature a list of sport specific communities
7. Please select and join each of the relevant sports communities